*Lunch, snacks, and beverages will be provided at no charge. A resource center will be available where books can be viewed and purchased. Breakout times take place after every session for each married couple to personally connect one on one. This time is meant to discuss questions generated from the session and personally identify with the principles/concepts within each person's relationship. There will be a brief review of every session by the facilitators at the end of the breakout times, before starting the next session. For those who do not have a partner and still want to learn about marriage, you will be partnered with another person without a partner. Due to the length of time during each Saturday, there will be no childcare available. If you are unable to find childcare and want to come, please email: keith.parmer@christefc.net
